The Build

HAND CRAFTED IN 2007

The first of its kind in the UK, The Staging Post is constructed from over ninety Douglas Fir grown on the shores of Loch Ness.

The creation of such a beautiful and remarkable building was achieved by the exceptional collaboration, expertise and skill of a dedicated team of professional craftsmen from the Scottish based company, Highland Log Homes.

This exceptional venue provides unique pre-show hospitality for up to 60 guests.

A 2 course pre-theatre buffet with a minimum of 30 guests provides the perfect way to exclusively entertain VIP guests or a family group for a special occasion on a beautiful summer's evening.

The Staging Post during the interval remains exclusively for your guests and then opens up after the performance for the opportunity to meet the cast and other fellow Theatregoers.

CONFERENCE & BUSINESS

This unique and secluded venue provides the ideal space for Corporate Hospitality and Product Launches.

Completely self contained including its own kitchen facility, the Staging Post provides complete privacy to meet business colleagues. Showcase your ideas, deliver presentations and discuss your growing business plans with confidence. Create annual conference days too so you can build upon relationships year after year.

Indoor, outdoor, night or day, The Staging Post also offers space for team building events large or small. A stunning and memorable venue for ice breaking and bonding days with your colleagues.

WEDDING

& PRIVATE HIRE

Following the formalities of the ceremony, The Staging Post is the perfect relaxing environment to share with your guests for a evening of celebration. Complete with its own bar and kitchen guests can enjoy a buffet and dancing until late into the evening or simply mingle amongst friends in an informal setting. Beautifully lit with stunning fairy lights inside and out, the staging post is wonderfully magical. You create gorgeous photos for your wedding album too on our fairytale bridge or under the stars in front of the rustic logs of the cabin. Finally, commemorate your special day with a finale of fireworks to end a truly memorable and unique wedding.

Birthday and Special Occasion Celebrations. The perfect venue to celebrate with friends on a special occasion in an unforgettable setting. Enjoy a buffet or barbecue with up to 60 of your chosen guests and dance until late in a beautiful wooded glade.

CHRISTMAS

PARTY NIGHTS

With candlelit tables and a roaring log fire the Staging Post provides the perfect surroundings in which to celebrate Christmas. Available for party nights throughout December (excluding Christmas Day) and January with dancing until late with our resident disco.

A minimum of 30 and a maximum of 54 guests can be catered for. The Staging Post is not available for individual table reservations.
